

JAMES ALAN FOX

Introduction for Speaking

James Alan Fox is The Lipman Professor and former dean of the College of Criminal Justice at Northeastern University. He has written sixteen books, including his newest two, Extreme Killing: Understanding Serial and Mass Murder and The Will to Kill: Making Sense of Senseless Murder. As an authority on homicide, he appears regularly on national television programs, including the Today Show, Meet the Press, Dateline, 20/20, and Oprah, and is frequently interviewed by the press. He was profiled in a two-part cover story in USA Today, entitled “The Dean of Death,” which described him as “arguably the nation’s foremost criminologist.” Fox often gives lectures and expert testimony, including over one hundred keynote and campus-wide addresses around the country, fourteen appearances before the United States Congress, and presentations to President and Mrs. Clinton, Attorney General Reno, and Princess Anne of Great Britain. He served on President Clinton’s advisory committee on school shootings and on an expert panel on Drug, Disciplined and Drug Free Schools for the U.S. Department of Education.
